

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DEPOT AMERICA AND IMAGE1 SOLIDIFY PARTNERSHIP AND FORM DEPOT INTERNATIONAL

FARMINGDALE, NJ (March 17, 2011) Depot America and Image1, two leading manufacturers and distributors of fuser and printer maintenance kits, laser printer parts, and refurbished printers, have announced they are taking their partnership to the next level and are joining together to form a single entity: Depot International. Following Clover Holdings' acquisition of Depot America in December 2010, the two companies have worked closely together on developing a global strategy to become the worldwide leader in printer parts.

John Tiano, President of Depot International responsible for global operations, had this to say, "With the combined technical expertise, operational strength, and distribution capabilities of Depot America and Image1, we are positioning ourselves as the global leader in the printer parts industry. The breadth and reach of this combined organization will elevate the level of service we are able to offer our customers, and will immediately make Depot International a global powerhouse in the printer parts industry."

Jim Loden, President of global parts sales and business development, added, "Clover Holdings' acquisition of Depot America was an important step in advancing our strategy to become the worldwide leader in printer parts. By combining the best practices of Depot America and Image1, we are building a world-class organization that will raise the bar for service and customer support across the entire industry."

"The coming together of Image1 and Depot America is not only great for our company, but even more so for our customers. With the strength of the Depot International platform, we will be able to deliver the highest quality printer parts in the industry to more locations, more quickly and more economically than ever before. We look forward to what the future brings," added Tiano.
